HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

180 Days of Reading for Second Grade offers teachers and parents a full page of daily reading comprehension and word-study practice activities for each day of the school year.

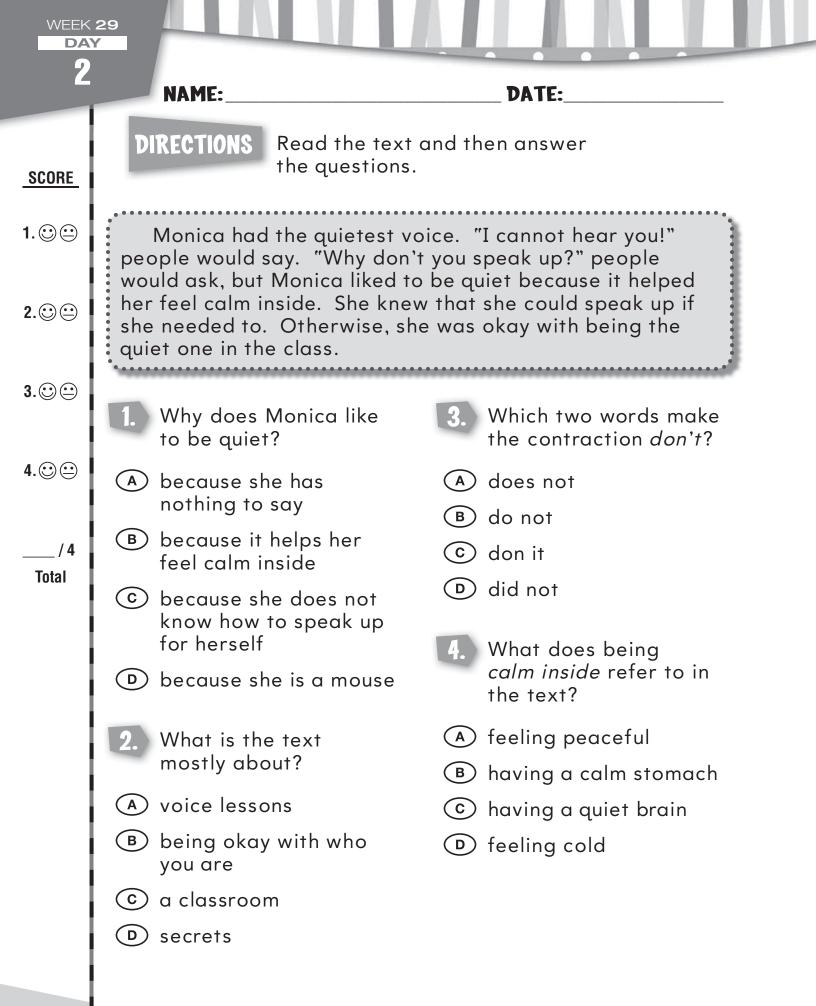

Easy to Use and Standards Based

These activities reinforce grade-level skills across a variety of reading concepts. The questions are provided as a full practice page, making them easy to prepare and implement as part of a classroom morning routine, at the beginning of each reading lesson, or as homework.

Every second-grade practice page provides questions that are tied to a reading or writing standard. Students are given the opportunity for regular practice in reading comprehension and word study, allowing them to build confidence through these quick standards-based activities.

Question	Common Core State Standards
Days 1–3

No More Bullying

Two girls followed Sam home from school. He was walking by himself because his brother was home sick. He could hear the girls behind him. They were giggling and saying rude things. It felt like they were getting closer and closer.

Sam did not know why the girls were teasing him. He barely knew them, though one of the girls lived around the corner. Sam even thought she might be friends with his brother. Why was she being so mean to him? Sam started to walk quickly.

He rounded the corner to his street. His house was five houses away. He could see his car and his mailbox. He was so close. He began to jog.

The girls jogged after him, but then Sam surprised them when he stopped running and turned around. "Why are you following me?" he yelled. "I don't like it, and I think you are bullying me."

The girls stopped in their tracks. "Bullying?" one asked. "No, we aren't. We are just having fun."

"What you are doing is not funny to me," said Sam. "Please stop and leave me alone!"

"Okay, sorry, Sam," the girls muttered. They looked sad, but Sam was glad. He had taught them a lesson. What might seem fun can make someone else uncomfortable, and that is not okay. Sam walked into his house, hoping they would not bother him, or anyone else, again.
